

MOB WAS AFTER HEARTLESS MISER

Cruel-Hearted Millionaire Narrowly Escapes Lynching by Angry Crowd.

DEMANDED RENT FROM POOR DISTRESSED WOMAN

Clashes Occur Between National Guard and the Brave Police.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—In Marin county, just over the bay from San Francisco, an old multi-millionaire named Bradbury, narrowly escaped lynching by a mob because he demanded rent of a house owned by him from a woman whose doctor husband was in this city doing relief work. The people insist on the motto, "One for all and all for one."

Guard Goes Too Far. Minor clashes continue to occur between the police and militiamen of the National Guard, the latter being inclined to go too far in a show of their temporary authority. People generally are a good deal disgusted with the "toy soldiers," and Mayor Schmitz has asked that they be withdrawn from San Francisco, but Gov. Pardee, who was himself a captain in the National Guard before he was elected Governor, insists that the militia is efficient and that to criticize it is unworthy. There is here and there a little friction between the regulars and police, one policeman making complaint that he was shot at by a regular, but, generally speaking, the United States military authorities and civic officials are working harmoniously.

Telephone communication between San Francisco and cities on the other side of the bay has been re-established. For the present the use of the wires is confined to business men. The telephone company announces that in a few days the "hello bells" will be ringing in all houses left standing.

The telegraph wires are getting into better shape slowly, but many messages now coming through bear dates of April 18 and 19. It will be several days before the jam is broken, and even Oakland will have to do the bulk of the business for some time.

Build City Beautiful. The work of dynamiting shattered walls is progressing rapidly and the clearing of debris has begun. Building operations will commence almost immediately and the general cry is to build the most modern and beautiful city in the world on the ruins of what was part mining camp and part metropolis.

The big life insurance companies have extended by sixty days the time for paying premiums, but the life insurance loss may not be large.

Fire insurance men continue to declare that their losses will be paid in full, though some companies will have to assess their stockholders to meet the emergency. The insurance loss is estimated by agents here at $175,000,000 to $225,000,000.

Earthquake losses introduce a new element into the calculations of adjusters. After the earthquake in Charleston there was no fire and no losses were paid; but in San Francisco some policies cover earthquake losses, while others do not.

Must Wait for Money. The bankers will have plenty to meet the situation as soon as they dare open their vaults, but the experience of Baltimore taught that it is not safe to open the vaults until they are thoroughly cooled. The bankers fear it will be nearly thirty days before they can get at their securities. In the meantime there will be a great scarcity of ready money, but the prices of necessities have been kept down, and in many instances are lower than before the disaster.

The Oakland Savings bank is arranging to pay out small sums.

April rains, necessary to the maturing of the crops of the State, are causing some discomfort to homeless campers in the park, but all vacant houses have been leveled on and an effort is being made to house everybody. The showers are not cold, but a good many people have been wet to the skin. Supplies are coming from all directions. There is no scarcity of provisions, although more blankets and clothing are needed.

OAKLAND BANKS RESUME Confidence Restored and Outlook Is Encouraging.

OAKLAND, April 25.—After being closed for a week, Oakland's eleven banks resumed business today in accordance with directions from the commissioners. The day's business was decidedly encouraging, more money being deposited than withdrawn. Partial withdrawals of savings accounts were allowed.

"We find that the public feels no uneasiness over the situation," said one banker. "With public confidence backing us as it has done today, the banks of Oakland are in a more prosperous condition than they have ever been."

HOLY WAR IN RUSSIA Catholics Threaten Massacre of Their Adversaries.

WARSAW, April 25.—Religious frenzy characterized the fighting at Les Nobles on April 22, between Catholics and Metropolitans, when ten persons were killed and seventy-seven were wounded. Four priests were severely mutilated. The men fought like beasts. The antagonists gouged out the eyes of their adversaries.

The Catholics, who were beaten, threaten to arrange a St. Bartholomew massacre.

WILL HAVE A NEW LAW FOR RUSSIA

Strong Point Has Been Gained by People in New Legislation.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 25.—The final draft of the "fundamental law" was published yesterday. It consists of seventy articles and constitutes Russia's so-called "constitution." The main point gained by the people in their fight against the crown is the first incorporation in the "fundamental law" of the imperial manifesto of October 20, creating a parliament, and thus making it impossible for the Emperor hereafter without usurpation to withdraw what he has granted.

Supporting Emperor. Otherwise the modifications of the "fundamental law" are entirely in the direction of supporting the Emperor's present powers against the assaults of parliament. He not only retains absolute control of the army and navy and foreign relations, with power to declare peace or war; but he keeps in his hands the vital prerogative of declaring cities, districts and provinces under martial law or "in a state of reinforced security."

Have No Security Now. Inasmuch as any exceptional state of security involves the suspension of civil rights, and as normal conditions have not existed in Russia for years, St. Petersburg having been "in a state of reinforced security" since 1882, the personal guarantees granted can be wiped out by a stroke of the Emperor's pen.

Important Provision. A very important provision makes no law operative until published by the ruling senate. The senate, a purely bureaucratic institution, therefore becomes the judge of the "constitutionality" of the acts of the parliament. Immunity from arrest and domiciliary visits, etc., are spoiled by many exceptions. The right of freedom of residence, which seems freely granted, is subject to the "existing regulations."

A suspicious feature in connection with the Emperor's desire to dissolve parliament is that provision is made for fixing a time within which the new parliament must be convened.

DECISION POSTPONED National Educational Association May Yet Meet in Frisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—The National Educational association was to have held its annual convention in San Francisco from July 4 to 9, and plans are being considered to have the convention held in California in spite of the disaster that has overtaken San Francisco. It has been suggested that a model outdoor camp be established in the Piedmont hills back of Oakland, and within easy distance of the University of California. With some such idea in view a telegram has been sent to Dr. Nathan C. Schaefer, president of the National Educational association, at Harrisburg, Pa., as follows: "In consultation with Benj. Ide Wheeler, president of the University of California, we have decided to request you to kindly postpone any decision regarding the forty-fifth annual convention of the National Educational association for a week or ten days, and to communicate here before coming to any final decision."

WOOL SEASON OPENS Lewiston, Montana, Sheepmen Sell Clips at High Price.

Special to The Tribune. LEWISTOWN, Mont., April 25.—The wool season opened here this week when a Boston house contracted for over 500,000 pounds of high-grade wool at an advance of 2 cents per pound over the price paid the same growers last season. So many sheep have been sold during the past month for removal from this the banner wool county of the State, that the total clip will show a considerable falling off in quantity as compared with last year. Yearling clip is bringing right now from $2.75 to $4.25, and three-year-olds bring from $4.75 to $6. A number of sales having been made at the latter figure.

The Salt Lake commission men who did a large business in Lewistown last summer are not likely to find much wool unsold by the time it is in the warehouse, ready to be baled out.

LOST CHILDREN FLEEING Fear Is That Little Ones Will Not Find Parents.

SALEM, Or., April 25.—Gov. Chamberlain sent the following telegram to Gov. Pardee today: "Many children and some babies are coming through here unidentified and unaccompanied by any one, cared for only by strangers. Can they not be gathered together at Oakland and kept together for subsequent identification? As it is they will forever be lost to their parents."

To San Francisco and Return.

From Salt Lake, via O. S. L. and S. P. lines. Tickets on April 25 to May 31, inclusive, good for return to July 31. City Ticket Office, 201 Main st.

Adding to Water.

SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE. LARAMIE, Wyo., April 24.—The Union Pacific Railroad company has begun laying a six-inch water main along Second street to the rolling mill, supplying that institution from the city water system. It was the plan of the railroad company to have replaced the Grand avenue main with a new and larger pipe, had the city decided to improve the distribution system, but the turning down of that proposition may cause the company to change its plans. The new main on Second street will be for the exclusive use of the railroad company.

HORRIBLE TRAGEDY

Cossacks Shoot Down Without Mercy Helpless Russian Woman.

VERONESE, Russia, April 25.—Yesterday's slaughter of peasants at Diwittza was precipitated by the shooting of a pregnant woman in a crowd attempting to take grain from the municipal warehouse.

Men of neighboring villages joined the local peasants, armed with farm implements, and the local guard was reinforced by Cossacks, who fired repeated volleys, killing nineteen and injuring fifty peasants.

Russian Farmers Mutinous.

NIZHNI NOVGOROD, April 25.—Agrarian troubles have commenced in this province and troops have been summoned from Karoslav to suppress the disturbances.

AID FOR SUFFERERS FROM THE ORIENT

Japan Will Send Hospital Ship and Nurses to Stricken Frisco.

TOKIO, April 25.—The most genuine sympathy is expressed here for the sufferers by earthquake and fire in San Francisco and the feeling of grief is especially strong that such a calamity should have befallen the best friends of Japan. A subscription list has been opened here, but there is not much chance for any pecuniary assistance from this quarter owing to the draft made upon the public purse for the aid of sufferers by famine at home.

Practical Relief. A number of wealthy sympathizers with San Francisco and leading citizens held a meeting here yesterday to consider the most practicable and acceptable measure of relief. Among those present was Premier Katsura. The Red Cross authorities present after careful deliberation, decided to send a hospital ship to San Francisco with a large number of experienced nurses on board to aid the sick and wounded.

It is expected that this ship will sail for America at the earliest possible date.

WANT AND NEED.

There's a big difference between what a baby wants and what he needs. Deny him the one, give him the other. Most babies need Scott's Emulsion—it's the right thing for a baby. It contains a lot of strength-building qualities that their food may not contain. After a while they get to want it. Why? Because it makes them comfortable. Those dimples and round cheeks mean health and ease. Scott's Emulsion makes children easy; keeps them so, too.

MAGNIFICENT PLAN TO REBUILD CITY

Architect Burnham Has Outlined Scheme Which Will Be Followed.

CHICAGO, April 25.—When San Francisco begins rebuilding next week it probably will be along plans drawn last September by D. H. Burnham, at a cost of $17,000, and which Mayor Schmitz and his committee pledged themselves to follow as nearly as possible. The fire has swept away all obstacles to following the plans in detail. The idea is to have a chain of boulevards encircling the entire city, with diagonal streets cut through the business center to relieve the congestion. The main sketch follows the lines of Paris.

Concentric Rings.

The plan consists of a number of concentric rings separated by boulevards. The smallest of these rings encircles the civic center of the city. From this center run diagonal arteries in every direction. At each intersection of these arteries with a boulevard there will be a public plaza.

Because of the hills, intermediary boulevards will be impracticable, and for this reason they are replaced by a series of contour roads, circumnavigating the hills and having connection with each other on the level ground by the main arteries.

Into Three Elements.

The proposed new city is divided into three elements: Educational, economical and residential. In the first circle will be all city and Government buildings. In the second, structures of monumental character, theaters, schools and libraries. In the outer circles, residences and schools.

The water supply will be taken from the Sierras by a system of reservoirs. As the supply will be limitless it is suggested that the reservoirs shall be of vast dimensions and designed so that they will be a distinct feature of the new city. The plans also provide small parks and playgrounds at all schools, features entirely lacking in the old city.

Death Sentence Three Times.

HACKENSACK, N. J., April 25.—For the third time the death sentence was passed today upon Mrs. Anna Valentia, convicted of the murder of Russ Salza.

REFUGEES FIND RELIEF

El Paso Filled With Victims of the Earthquake.

EL PASO, Tex., April 25.—El Paso bids fair to become overrun with refugees from San Francisco. Every train is bringing many penniless refugees, the relief committee furnishing them transportation here. It may be necessary to raise funds to help them.

The Maccabees yesterday started a movement among all Texas lodges of the order to raise funds to assist their San Francisco members. The sum will be sent to the California State commander.

GOOD WORK IN CHICAGO Special Effort Will Be Made to Funds Next Saturday.

CHICAGO, April 25.—Mayor Day today issued a proclamation which time funds for the earthquake victims will be solicited, a house canvass to be made by members of the police department.

At the Union and Northwestern here all day long trainloads of poured into the city and were generally provided for by the relief and aid society.
